THE WHITE PEACOCK

Here where the sunlight
Floodeth the garden,
Where the pomegranate
Reareth its glory
Of gorgeous blossom;
Where the oleanders
Dream through the noontides;
. . . . . .
. . . . . Where the heat lies
Pale blue in the hollows,
. . . . . .
Here where the dream-flowers,
The cream-white poppies,
Silently waver,
. . . . . .
Here as the breath, as the soul of this beauty
Moveth in silence, and dreamlike, and slowly,
White as a snowdrift in mountain valleys
When softly upon it the gold light lingers:
. . . . . .
Moves the white peacock, as tho' through the noontide
A dream of the moonlight were real for a moment.
Dim on the beautiful fan that he spreadeth,
. . . . . .
Dim on the cream-white are blue adumbrations,
. . . . . .
Pale, pale as the breath of blue smoke in far woodlands,
Here, as the breath, as the soul of this beauty,
Moves the White Peacock.
